Collect.

Eternal God, our glorious King, whose Son Jesus Christ was transfigured on the holy mountain and seen in splendour by his chosen witnesses:
grant us, his followers, faith to perceive his glory,
to listen to him, and to walk in his way,
that we may be changed into his likeness from glory to glory;
for he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING:

(Daniel 7:9–10, 13–14)

A reading from the book of Daniel:

As I watched,
thrones were set in place,
    and an Ancient One took his throne;
his clothing was white as snow,
    and the hair of his head like pure wool;
his throne was fiery flames,
    and its wheels were burning fire.
A stream of fire issued
    and flowed out from his presence.
A thousand thousand served him,
    and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.
The court sat in judgement,
    and the books were opened.

As I watched in the night visions,
I saw one like a human being coming with the clouds of heaven.
And he came to the Ancient One
and was presented before him.
To him was given dominion
and glory and kingship,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion
that shall not pass away,
and his kingship is one
that shall never be destroyed.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM 97

Response at 8:00 a.m.: Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous, and give thanks to his holy name.

1. The Lord is king; let the earth rejoice:
let the multitude of the isles be glad.
2. Clouds and darkness are round about him:
righteousness and justice are the foundations of his throne.
3. A fire goes before him: and burns up his enemies on every side. R.
4. His lightnings light up the world: the earth sees it and is afraid.
5. The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
6. The heavens declare his righteousness,
and all the peoples see his glory. R.
7. Confounded be all who worship carved images and delight in false gods!
Bow down before him, all you gods.
8. Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Judah rejoice, because of your judgements, O Lord.

9. For you are the Lord: most high over all the earth;
you are exalted far above all gods. R.
10. The Lord loves those who hate evil;
he preserves the lives of his saints
and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.
11. Light has sprung up for the righteous, and joyful gladness for those who are true-hearted.
12. Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous:
and give thanks to his holy name. R.

SECOND READING:

(2 Peter 1:16–21)

A reading from the second letter of Peter:

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, ‘This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.’

We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed.

You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one’s own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

(Luke 9:28–36)

Alleluia! Alleluia!

It is good, Lord to be here. You have the words of eternal life!

Alleluia!

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray. And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, ‘Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah’—Peter did not know what he said.

While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.

For the gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NOTICES

COVID-19

Victorians, more than anywhere else in Australia, have endured two years of restrictions in order to keep everyone safe. The State Government is no longer mandating the wearing of face masks. Nevertheless, health advice remains that the wearing of face masks in confined spaces (our Church is one of those, given we can't provide full ventilation in these colder winter months) where social distancing is more difficult is highly advisable. Neither the Wardens, the Parish Council intend to impose any mandate on masks. But this note is to assure parishioners and visitors that it remains advisable to wear a mask; and you are more than welcome to do so, especially as we see the numbers of cases spreading (among our own parishioners, as well as more widely in the community). This is one way we can help to keep one another safe and show Christian care and concern for all.

Fr Gregory and the Wardens

Thank You

A letter of thanks has been received from the daughters of the late Thea Scott expressing gratitude to all those parishioners who provided food, arranged flowers and hosted the wake, making the day so much easier for the family.

Book Club

Book Club will be meeting this Monday, 8 August at 2:00 p.m. in the North Room. The book being discussed is "The Forgotten letters of Esther Durrant" by Kayte Nunn. All welcome.

Invitation to the Annual Archbishop's Dinner 2022

Given this 'annual dinner' has not taken place for the last three years, it would be good for a number from our parish to attend this year. The Parish offers a generous annual donation to the Theological School of the College, so it would be good to hear how we and others are assisting in the vital work of educating and preparing clergy and lay people for a range of ministries in the Church. (Not least this year, because one of the keynote speakers is 'our own, our very own' Malcolm Tadgell!).

Date: Wednesday, 14 September 2022

Time: Evensong from 5:45 – 6:15 p.m. / Dinner from 6:30 – 10:00 p.m.

Location: Trinity College Dining Hall - 100 Royal Parade, Parkville, VIC 3052
